

Cascadia Water Trail Campsites

Anderson Island The South Sound Area

Enjoy camping on a spit that shelters a tidal lagoon. At night you may hear the trains running north and south on the mainland. Sunsets here are often remarkable. Don't look west, but watch the madrona as they redden when the sun drops to the horizon. Reserved camping for WWTA members & guests.

Natural History.

The Christensens, the island's first settlers, were descendents of a German baron whose daughter eloped with a Danish footman. They settled on Amsterdam ay in the 1870's. In 1882, Falk and Clara Carlson moved to Anderson from Kansas with their 6 children and became one of the island's first families. Carlson Bay is said to be named after this family.
