

Cascadia Water Trail Campsites

Port of Brownsville The Mid-Sound Area

This site may be the plushest Cascadia marine Trail site, with access to showers, laundry and a deli just steps away at the Port facility. You can barbeque your selection at the deli or have a salad. The campsites are in a charming park which is frequently the setting for wedding ceremonies.

Natural History.

Soloman Brown was one of the first non-Native settlers in the area that now bears this name. He began his homestead in 1863 and by 1890 the area has a schoolhouse, store and post office. None remain today. The first Brownsville dock was build in 1901 by the local citizenry. On June 1, 1920, the Brownsville Port District was formed. Most of the building surrounding the Port today were build in the 1970's, including the north breakwater. The east breakwater was constructed in 1999.

Trailheads:

Manzanita Landing	3.5 nms
Old Man House SP	6.1 nms
Illahee SP	3.7 nms

Adjacent Sites:

Anna Smith	11.6 nms
Fay Bainbridge SP	8.7 nms
Fort Ward SP	6.6 nms

Coordinates: N 47⁰ 39.100' W 122⁰ 36.900'

Charts: NOAA Chart 18449 SeaTrails Chart WA 202

Beach Approach:

Cobble; landing beaches can be approached from either N or S. From the north boaters must glide under the walkway to the breakwater to get to the beach.

For the most current information, visit the website of the Washington Water Trails Association generally

www.wwta.org

Report your adventures at this campsite to the webmaster (PapaOtter@SeaOtters.US)